DASHAMSA CHART D10:

This chart is actually very very important in terms of who you are, why? Because it's your OUTPUT in the world. Who we are, is what we do. We are nice people, we are honest, hardworking, well driven, or so we think; but when we are at our karma, doing our job, business or work we are something else and that's what people know as us. D10 chart is very similar to Arudha Lagna which we will learn In Jamini Section.

Remember in all the divisional charts the ascendant is you, it's who you are in that section of the division, then all other house have different representation.

Below are the meaning of Houses in D10:

1. Who you are, how strong your karmas are, as in how good or bad? It's your stepping outside your home and going into the professional world.
2. Wealth you can create based on your karma.
3. Your skills of career, courage to work, the way you communicate in the career, co-workers
4. Happiness from career, home related work or business.
5. Subordinates, your children in career, change of jobs, purva punya related to karma.
6. Your competition in career, obstacles in career, debts taken on behalf of career.

11. Desires of career, gains from career and network circles in career.
12. Loss of career, foreign travels related to career, working behind the scenes, rest in career (retirement)

Notes:

1. Look at the 10th lord of D1 in D10 chart, it's placement by house, sign and nakshatra including all the aspects on it will show the "Direction" of the karma headed in life by looking at the deity of the D10 chart.

2. The lagna of D10 is whom the native is in the world while the 10th house and lord of D10 show the execution of the karma.
3. View conjunctions, aspects, yogas just like the birth chart but remembering the meaning of houses.
4. Saturn and Sun are the karakas of D10 chart and their position in all ways are the most important to see if D10 is giving favors or misery.
5. Look at planets from the Moon for recognition and fame.
6. Look for yogas in the D10 chart like Raj yoga, Pancha Maga Purusha Yoga, Arishtha yoga and kartati yogas (we will discuss this after yoga lessons)
7. Sign of Capricorn becomes important in D10 chart along with the sign of Taurus and Virgo. These are the original Artha Houses of "WORK".
8. Look at the corruption of Rahu and Ketu to other grahas as they will corrupt the graha and its ability to give rise to its fullest extent unless the graha is strong in a sign.
9. If Saturn is 2nd to Rahu in birth or D10 chart success comes in late.
10. Sun Saturn becomes important for having a executive level position, they should be 10th from a certain graha.
11. Upachaya houses a very important in D10 chart for "Rising in life".
12. Jamini Argla and Yogadhas are also very important for success. We will talk about this in Jamini section.

Key Notes: Vargottama Planets if not well situated per the lagna or corrupted by other planets will fail to give but they still protect. Pushakara bhaga planet give excellent results regardless of their placement as long they are not corrupted by other planets.

The Deity of D10 Chart.

1. Indra (o-3 degrees)
2. Agni (3-6 degrees)
3. Yama (6-9 degree)
4. Asura (9-12 degree)
5. Varuna (12-15 degree)
6. Vayu (15-18 degree)
7. Kubera (18-21 degree)
8. Ishana (21-24 degree)
9. Brahma (24-27 degree)
10. Ananta (27-30 degree)

Some astrologers use reverse orders for ODD signs vs. Even signs, however I see this normal degree pattern working fine for me and that's what I was taught.

Do not use graha rulership with these deities because you will be lost like a madman. I have seen over 10 articles, books, lectures of different astrologers assigning different planets to them which can create a cluster of mess for you. Just stick to these deities and you will be fine.

Mainly such analysis is used by see the 10th lord and ascendant lord of D10 in the birth chart degree, but D10 having degrees of its own is much more helpful.

Meaning of Deity's:

INDRA: KING of Gods which means planets or ascendant degree in such places the native wants to be CEO, CFO, Business owner, executive, Politian and be famous.

AGNI: inspiration, creative, passionate, prosperity, easy going careers, fireman, military, police men, scientists, astronomers.

YAMA: Lawyers, safety officers, rule makers, police maker, HR, judge, Manager

ASURA: Medicine, healer, the one who breaks the rules, breaks the law, solves problems outside the rules.

VARUNA: Diplomatic, philosopher, traveler, sailor, one who deals with water, liquids, medicines

ISHANA: This is a teacher, a priestly like quality who wants to motivate and inspire people at work, take care of other's issues.

KUBERA: The one who handles money, the one who gets money with ease, the one who hides and keeps the money and knows what to do with it, the collector of Gold. Kubera are great accountants, money managers, number crunchers.

ANNATA: This is the degree of worldwide fame, the one who destroys the darkness, brings in purity.

BRAHMA: the creator, the inventor, the one who discovers new things and spread them around.

VAYU: The one with PhD, the scholar, the teacher, advisor, the businessman with many ideas.

When using these Gods of nature to analyze D10 chart be careful not to get your prediction camouflaged. One can say something as simple as "You want to be a leader, the boss and the manager", 9 out of 10 times the person will say yes; that's not a prediction that is psychological counselling. You are not learning that here, you are learning concert predictions.

One can have a dominated Indra graha in their D1 chart that will overrule their Asura/Nirriti graha of D10. Use them carefully.

KETU NOTES:

Observe the 10th lord of D1 in D10, if strong and well placed in D10 then the native will be well known in their work and will be respected in their work.

Observe ascendant lord of D1 in D10 if strong their stamina and strength will be to work with full motivation.

Give importance to Sun and Saturn the karaka of D10 chart, see the aspects, conjunction and yogas being formed which is very important to see if the native is meant or not meant for government jobs, politics or being in a high executive field.

Observe 10th house from Sun to see the physical strength required for work, if malefices are 10th from sun the native has to work hard and do physical work to attain wealth.

Observe 10th lord from Saturn, which will show how strong or weak the work ethics are of the native.

Observe 10th from moon which will show the mental and emotional attachment to career.

Observe the planets in 10th house, planets in the 10th house of D10 will always help the native in finding success and fame at work even if debilitated because planets in 10th house are visible in the sky.

Saturn's 3rd aspect on 10th house is never welcomed unless he aspects his own sign of Capricorn or Aquarius. This can be a life long struggle towards achieving success.

If 10th lord of the birth chart goes into 6th, 8th house it shows struggles throughout life, if sitting in 12th house then shows struggles in homeland but success in foreign lands.

If ascendant lord of D1 is sitting in 6th, 8th or 12th house then the native is not motivated to work or finds lot of struggles to start work.

If 10th lord of D1 is either exalted, own sign, moolatrikon sign or vargottma (same sign in birth chart and D10 chart) will bring continues success to the native even in bad time periods.

Also notice the red zodiac sign label in 10th and 7th house? That's what known as Dadga rashi as in "Zerio rashi", which is zodiac sign with no agenda, no power and no aim. We will learn this soon. What was yogananda's career? Well he never had a career. He was a monk.

Who was Yogananda's wife? No one, he was never married, never had a relationship. Also if you notice degree wise Venus changes in graga system to Mula nakshatra, and he was a big follower of Khali. So why didn't he get money with such good placement? This is where we will look at several different things. 1. Navamsa for fortune given by grahas. 2. Dasha period that will actually give money. We will look at D2 chart, and D60 chart.

All this is an Onion lawyer scheme, do not judge an onion by a single layer, Onion is an onion when everything is seen intact.

Once you have learned everything you will see things as a whole than just 1 chart, 1 placement, 1 dasha, 1 yoga etc… I'm just showing you layer by layer not the whole picture.
